ATTACHMENT TO CRIMINAL COMPLAINT:

RE: Exar Adrian LINDO-AYALA

CONTINUATION:

The subjects were subsequently transported to the Rio Grande Valley/Central Processing Center to be processed accordingly.

On October 1, 2019, Homeland Security Investigations Special Agents (HSI) interviewed LINDO-AYALA upon suspicion that his claim to be the child's father was false. At that time, LINDO-AYALA admitted that he was not the real father of the child and had produced a fraudulent document to claim relation to the child. Prior to being interviewed, LINDO-AYALA was read his Miranda Rights and chose to waive them.

LINDO-AYALA stated that, in fact, he is not the father of the child and was transporting the child in order to be allowed to remain the United States. LINDO-AYALA stated that he intended on transporting the child from Nicaragua to Houston, Texas, where he would seek employment. LINDO-AYALA implied he knew the child was illegally in the United States and intended to further the juvenile's illegal entry and presence in the United States.

The male juvenile was identified as J.J.M.M.
